University of Southern California Ostrow School of Dentistry is an ADA CERP Recognized Provider. ADA CERP is a service of the American Dental Association to assist dental professionals in identifying quality providers of continuing dental education. ADA CERP does not approve or endorse individual courses or instructors, nor does it imply acceptance of credit hours by boards of dentistry.
All speakers must disclose to the audience any proprietary, financial or other personal interest of any nature or kind, in any product, service, source and/or company, or in any firm beneficially associated therewith that will be discussed or considered during their presentation. The Ostrow School of Dentistry of USC does not view the existence of these interests or uses as implying bias or decreasing the value to participants. The Ostrow School of Dentistry of USC, along with ADA CERP, feels that this disclosure is important for the participants to form their own judgment about each presentation.

Topics to be discussed:

- Chronic orofacial pains (neuralgias, neuromas and neuropathies of the trigeminal nerve)
- Headache disorders which mimic Temporomandibular Disorder (TMD) and cause orofacial pain
- Neurology for the novice
- New medications used for pain
- Examination methods for chronic pain

Upon Completion of the Course Participants Should Be Able To:

- Understand the neuroanatomy, neurophysiology and pathobiology of the trigeminal nociceptive system
- Understand neurogenous and neurovascular diseases
- Conduct a differential diagnosis of neurogenous and headache disorders
- Understand the current therapies used for these problems
- Understand how neurovascular headaches can convert from episodic to chronic
- Know the latest medications that are used for managing both neurovascular and neurogenous pain
- Understand how to make stents, perform intra-muscular injections, and conduct a myofascial examination

Synopsis

This course focuses on chronic Orofacial Pain (OFP) and headaches (e.g. Neuropathic Pain, Neurovascular Pain, Neuralgia, Neuritis and Neuroma). It reviews underlying mechanisms of pain induction, nerve injury and repair, sensitization and spontaneous ectopic pain generation. Lectures include an explanation of how various analgesic blocks and sensory testing procedures, in combination with historical information, produce a differential diagnosis of neurogenous and headache pain. Lectures will also focus on the appropriate pharmacologic, behavioral, surgical, and physical medicine management procedures for these conditions. Finally, real patient cases will be presented with the goal of helping the attendee become more comfortable in diagnosing and treating OFP disorders and providing a new understanding of chronic pain.

Testimonials

“"This is a lovely course. After taking this course, I realize that I am missing something in my daily practice. I love to fly back here again to take more courses. Dr. Clark is a great lecturer!"
- Dr. Phuong Nguyen, Fircrest, Washington

“"This course made me aware of symptoms that don't have dental origins. I will have a different approach towards diagnosing atypical dental pains."
- Dr. John Kim, Upland, California
